(vi)	The Deputy Director of Municipal Secretary Administration, Mumbai.	..	Member

(2) For the purpose of preparation of such select list, the Committee shall ordinarily meet every year on a date as the Chairman may specify in this behalf, and prepare a select list as per general principles regarding promotions laid down by the Government from time to time.

17. Provision for taking assistance.— Where the Selection Committee acts as the Consultative Authority, it may take assistance for the purpose of conducting examinations or interviews, and any other matter from any institution engaged in training and research in the relevant field of specialization.

18. Appointments of Government Servants etc. to Service.— No person who is an employee of any State Government or of the Government of India or of any local authority or of any State-aided body shall be eligible for being appointed by nomination to any post in the Service unless he submits his application for such post after obtaining the consent of the State Government, the Government of India, the Local Authority, or, as the case may be, the State-aided body.

Explanation.— In the case of an applicant who is an employee of the State Government, or of the Government of India, the consent of the Government concerned shall be presumed to have been obtained if the Appointing Authority is satisfied from the endorsement of the forwarding officer or otherwise that the application has been made in accordance with the Rules made by the Government concerned.

19. Appointment by nomination, promotion or transfer.— (1) Where appointment by nomination to any post in the Service is not provided in these Rules and if a suitable candidate is not available for appointment by promotion or transfer, as the case may be, to such a post, appointment to such a post may be made by nomination and in such cases the qualifications in respect of age, education, experience, etc. shall be such as may be determined by the Appointing Authority.

(2) Where appointment by nomination and promotion in a fixed ratio to any post in the Service is provided in the relevant recruitment rules and if suitable candidates are not available for appointment by nomination or promotion, as the case may be, to such a post, according to the ratio and a certificate to that effect is issued by the Appointing Authority or, as the case may be, the Consultative Authority concerned, the appointment to such post may be made by promotion or nomination in relaxation of the ratio with the approval of the Director.

(3) Where suitable candidates are not available for appointment to any post in the Service either by nomination or by promotion or by transfer, as the case may be, according to these Rules for such post, appointment to such post may be made by transfer either for a specified period or on a permanent basis, of a person belonging to any Department of Government or any other State Government in India or of any Local Authority; subject to such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Appointing Authority and where such transfers are on permanent basis in consultation with the Consultative Authority:

Provided that, any appointment for any period extending beyond five years or on a permanent basis shall be made with the approval of the Government.

20. Canvassing to Disqualify Candidates.— Any attempt on the part of a candidate or his relations or friends to enlist support by direct or indirect methods for his application for appointment to any post in the Service or for promotion to any higher post in the Service shall disqualify him for such appointment or promotion.

21. Certificate of physical fitness and production of evidence as to good character.— Subject to such other rules as may be prescribed providing for medical examination of candidates to be appointed to the Service, appointments to any posts in the Service, shall be subject to the production of,—

(a) Certificate of physical fitness in the form specified by the Director from a Medical Officer duly appointed for that purpose by the Director; and

(b) such evidence of good character as the Appointing Authority may require in that behalf.

Provided that, the Appointing Authority may by a general or special order relax or condone the standards of physical fitness of recruitment of a candidate or candidates for a post or a class of posts in the Service.

22. Probation Period.— (1) Unless otherwise provided, a candidate appointed by nomination to any post in the Service shall be kept on probation for a period of two years:

Provided that, when the Appointing Authority is of the opinion that the work of such candidate is not upto the required standards, it may extend the period of probation by further period of not exceeding one year,

(2) The probationary candidates who fail to complete their courses of training to the satisfaction of the Appointing Authority or who fail to pass the prescribed examination within the maximum number of two chances will be liable to be discharged from service.

Explanation.—Confirmation under this sub-rule may be made with effect from the date of continuous officiation of the person after completion of a period of probation, if any, in that post or the date from which the permanent post or the date from which the permanent post is substantively vacant, whichever is later.

23. Departmental and Language Examinations and Training.— Candidates appointed or selected for appointment to posts in the Service in accordance with the provisions of these rules shall be required unless exempted in accordance with the rules or orders, to pass such Departmental and Language Examinations and/or tests as may be prescribed by the Director in that behalf. They shall also be required to undergo such pre-recruitment and/or post-recruitment training as may be laid down by the Director from time to time.

APPOINTMENT AND OTHER SERVICE CONDITIONS

24. Seniority of Employees.— (1) The inter se seniority of Existing Employee in each Grade of each service in which they are to be absorbed shall be determined on the basis of the date of appointment under Rule 5(6), if they join within one month from the date of such order, or within such extended period as the Appointing Authority may permit, and according to the dates of their joining, if they fail to join the office within the aforesaid permissible period.

(2) The inter se seniority of employees promoted to the higher posts shall be determined as follows,—

(i) if such employees are promoted on different dates, then according to the dates of their promotion; or
